The Center serves as fiscal sponsor for Brave Space Alliance (the Alliance), a nonprofit corporation in Chicago, Illinois that provides programming and services for LGBTQ individuals on the South and West sides of the city. As fiscal sponsor, the Center receives money on behalf of the Alliance and issues payment for expenses incurred by the Alliance from those monies. No revenues or expenses are reflected on the statement of activity for these transactions as the Center does not have variance power over the monies received and it does not have control over the Alliance. Accordingly, the amount of cash the Center holds for the Alliance is reported as both an asset and a liability on the statement of financial position.

Part V, line 4:

To support program costs.

Part X, Line 2:

The Center, an Illinois nonprofit corporation, is exempt from income taxes under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code and applicable state law, except for taxes pertaining to unrelated business income, if any.

The accounting standard on uncertainty in income taxes addresses the determination of whether tax benefits claimed or expected to be claimed on a tax return should be recorded in the financial statements. Under this guidance, the Center may recognize the tax benefit from an uncertain tax position only if it is more likely than not that the tax position will be sustained on examination by taxing authorities, based on the technical merits of the position. Examples of tax positions include the tax-exempt status of the Center and various positions related to the potential sources of unrelated business taxable income (UBTI). The tax benefits recognized in the financial statements from such a position are measured based on the largest benefit that has a greater than 50 percent likelihood of being realized upon ultimate settlement. There were no unrecognized tax benefits identified or recorded as liabilities during the year.

The Center files Forms 990 in the U.S. federal jurisdiction and the State of Illinois.
